

Ideas to suggest to parents:

- Point out different types of cards and invitations when you are out shopping
- Talk to your child about parties and celebrations that are important in your family
- Show your child photographs of celebrations that you have been to
- Show your child different types of clothes that might be worn to parties

